Carwyn's Catering is a premier location catering company, serving great food to the media industry.

Carwyn's Catering are specialists in catering for television commercials and films. Carwyn's catering has a reputation for providing the very highest standard of cuisine in any type of location. We pride ourselves in providing a service that caters for every dietary need and where nothing is too much trouble. We use the best produce we can source. We aim to impress your clients, agencies, crew and actors.

Carwyn's Catering is a partnership company started in 2013 by husband-and-wife team Carwyn and Odette Powell.

Carwyn started his film catering career in 1998, at London's Shepperton Studios on "Love Labour's Lost". He was fascinated by the process and enjoyed the challenges. From that moment he was hooked. With over 30 years' experience and has spent the last 25 years of this working in the film industry.

Odette has also 30 years hospitality experience including restaurant management, as a fine dining sommelier at Neil Perry's Rockpool and other high-end establishments. Since 2006 Odette has worked in the film industry, apart from taking time away to raise their two children.

Carwyn's Catering has worked with almost every production house in NZ, as well as many international production companies, on TVCs, Films and Television shows.

Carwyn's Catering based in West Auckland, and with two fully equipped kitchen trucks that have the capacity to cater for up to 1000 people. And can also travel to any location throughout New Zealand.
