PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am an enthusiastic and motivated individual with a strong interest in the creative, conservation, and sports industries. I am passionate about storytelling in all its forms—whether through writing, design, or film—and am eager to continue developing my skills within these areas. I am committed to building a career in the creative industries that allows me to combine my professional ambitions with a love of travel. Hardworking and adaptable, I communicate effectively and thrive both independently and as part of a team.
